J. T. Bosley
To 3 Deed of Trust
J. P. Rexford Tr.

I hereby convey unto J. P. Rexford, the following described tract of land lying and being in the County of Davidson, State of Tennessee, and bounded as follows: On the East by the Cumberland River - North by land of Hooper Hyder - West by Mr Shute's land - and South by the heirs of Laura Trimble deceased, wife of George W. Trimble, it being a portion of the Home Tract known as the Bosley Farm, and the same tract set off to me by the Commissioners appointed by the Chancery Court in the case of Trimble vs Bosley and others, the Commissioners report is recorded in Book "L" of the Minutes of said Chancery Court of Davidson County, page 392, to which reference is hereby made for certainty, containing Two Hundred and thirty seven acres more or less. To have and to hold the said tract forever. I covenant with said J. P. Rexford that I am lawfully seized of said land, and have a good right to convey the same, and that it is unencumbered. But this deed is made for the following purpose, and none other, that is to say; I am indebted to L. H. Sumner and W. A. Sumner to the amount of Three Hundred and eighteen dollars by promissory note of even date herewith, due on the 5th day of July next, and I am desirous to secure and make sure the payment of the same. Now if I should pay the said promissory note at maturity, then this deed to be void; but if I fail to pay the same when due then the said J. P. Rexford as trustee, after giving forty days notice in a Newspaper printed in the City of Nashville, may expose the said tract of land above described to public sale and sell it to the highest bidder for cash and give the title to the purchaser, and the said Trustee is to appropriate the proceeds of said sale first, to the payment of all expenses concerning the same Secondly to pay the said note of $318.00 secured hereby, and the balance if any there be to be paid to me. Given at Nashville, Davidson County, State of Tennessee, this 23rd day of May, A.D. 1868, Witness my hand and seal. (50 cents U.S.I.R.S.) J. T. Bosley (Seal)
