Henry Pullman to } Deed
H. E. Henderson

45 acres in the 19th Civil District.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Henry Pullman, of Davidson County, and State of Tennessee, for the consideration of Nine hundred dollars, to me paid, the receipt whereof I hereby acknowledged, have this day bargained and sold, and do by these presents transfer and convey to H. E. Henderson, of said County and State, my tract of land on which I now reside, situate in Davidson County, Tennessee, in District No. 19, on the Kelly's Creek Turnpike road, and bounded as follows: Beginning at the centre of the intersection of said Turnpike with H. E. Henderson's line; thence running with the centre of the Turnpike S. 18 E. 44 poles to a stake near a spring; thence N. 74 1/2° E. 100.32 poles to a stake, elm and sugar tree pointers; thence S. 2° E. 78.8 poles to a sugar tree; thence N. 87° E. 24.4 poles to a ; thence N. 6° E. 15.4 poles; thence N. 81 1/2° E. 111 poles to a point in the centre of H. E. Henderson's lane; thence with said Henderson's lane S. 7 1/2° W. 161.1 poles to the beginning, containing forty five acres, be the same more or less.
To have and to hold the same to the said H. E. Henderson, his heirs and assigns forever. And I warrant the title of said land to the said Henderson, his heirs, assigns &c, and agree to defend it, against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever. And I, the said Henry Pullman, do hereby covenant with the said H. E. Henderson, his heirs &c, that I am lawfully seized and possessed of said land, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unincumbered. But this conveyance is made upon the express condition that I am to retain possession and control said land during my life, after which the said Henderson, or his successors shall take possession and full control of said land, and this shall be a deed in fee simple for the same.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name this the 8th day of August, 1873.

(Rec'd August 8th 1873, at 11 42/60 A. M.) E. H. Eastman, Deputy Clerk.

Registered August 9th 1873

Whereas, on the 26th day of November, 1870, A. L. Carter recovered a judgment in the Circuit Court of Davidson County, State of Tennessee against E. E. Bryan and Henry Bryan, for the sum of $676.83, besides costs; and whereas, on the 28th day of November, 1870, an execution issued upon said judgment, and came to the hands of E. D. Whitworth, Sheriff of said County, and was, by his Deputy R. E. Long, levied upon the following described real estate, as the property of E. E. Bryan, one of the Defendants: Two certain tracts, pieces or parcels of land, situate, lying and being in the County of Davidson, and State of Tennessee, on the south bank of Cumberland River, and on both sides of the road leading from Nashville to Charlotte, and including Fowler's old field, and bounded as follows, to wit: The first tract beginning at a large Poplar, about 3 poles a little southwest of a Spring, and running east 90 poles to a black Walnut on flat ridge; thence north crossing the road at 82 poles in all 88 7/10 poles to a small red oaks on the point of a ridge; thence west 90 poles to a Chestnut near the top of a ridge; thence south crossing the road at 6 poles in all 88 7/10 poles to the beginning, containing fifty (50) acres, more or less.
The second tract beginning at George Dill's north corner, a double red Oak; running thence east 120 poles to a Chestnut Oak; thence south 200 poles crossing the road at a Poplar; thence west 120 poles to a Beech; thence north 200 poles crossing the Charlotte road to the beginning - lying on the waters of Pond Creek, and containing 150 160 acres, more or less; and whereas said Levy, Deputy Sheriff as aforesaid, by virtue of said levy, did, after the right of advertising was duly waived by defendant Bryan, expose said two tracts for sale, at the Court House door, in the City of Nashville, and on the 23rd day of January, 1871, the same were struck off to A. L. Carter, the plaintiff, at his bid of $624.28, that being the highest and best bid: Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, I, E. D. Whitworth, present Sheriff of said County, by virtue of the power in me vested as such, do hereby transfer and convey unto said A. L. Carter, his heirs &c, all the right, title and interest in me vested by the proceedings aforesaid, in and to said two tracts of land, but I make this conveyance only as Sheriff as aforesaid, and not otherwise. August 7th, 1873. E. D. Whitworth, Sheriff of Davidson County, Tenn.
State of Tennessee, Davidson County } Personally appeared before me, W. G. Ewin, Clerk of the County Court of said County, the within named E. D.
