to
Deed
Wm. J. Stokes

Lot on Water Street.

Registered Dec. 16th 1873.

This Indenture made and entered into this 30th day of October, 1873, by and between Thomas K. Sneed, Collector of the State and County Taxes, in and for the County of Davidson, State of Tennessee, of the one part, and William J. Stokes, of the other part. Witnesseth: that whereas, on the 8th day of March, 1872 a judgment was rendered by the Circuit Court of Davidson County, condemning for the State and County Taxes due for the year 1870, among other property, the following lot or parcel of land, situated in said County and State, and in the City of Nashville, on Water or Front Street, which was assessed in the name of and of which S. K. Stout was the reputed owner, and described in said assessment as Lot No. 174, Front Street, but which is more particularly described as follows: Being part of Lot No. 174 in the original plan of said City. Beginning on Water Street twenty two feet, two inches up said Street from the corner of said Street and Leaf alley; running thence at right angles with Water Street to Cumberland River; thence up said River feet; thence in a direct line to Water Street meeting the same at right angles; thence to the beginning; And whereas by the said judgment the then Collector of the State and County Taxes, Robert Chadwell, was ordered to sell said lot or parcel of land for the payment of the Taxes assessed thereon and the costs of having the same condemned; And whereas the said Robert Chadwell Collector as aforesaid, in pursuance of said judgment, did on the first day of July, 1872 after giving legal notice of the time and place of sale, proceed to sell said lot or parcel of land at the Court House door, in the City of Nashville for the Taxes and costs aforesaid at public vendue, when and where the said William J. Stokes became the purchaser thereof for the amount of the Taxes and costs due thereon, he being the last, highest and best bidder at said price, and the same was struck off to him accordingly; and whereas the said Stokes has paid to said Chadwell Collector as aforesaid, the State and County Taxes and costs thereon, amounting to Thirty Seven Dollars, as appears from his receipt [illegible]

the same [illegible] by said Sneed, Collector as aforesaid, by virtue of the premises, and by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Thomas K. Sneed, Special Collector as aforesaid, to him duly executed, doth grant unto the said William J. Stokes, and his heirs and assigns forever, the above described lot or parcel of land, and warrant and defend the title to him his heirs and and assigns, only so far as I am required by law so to do, further or otherwise. In Witness my hand, the day and date first above written.

House & Lot on Water Street.

Registered Dec. 15th 1873.

Whereas, at a sale held for the unpaid taxes due for the year 1870, by Robert Chadwell, Revenue Collector for Davidson County, on the first day of July, 1872, I became the purchaser of a certain House and lot, lying and being in the City of Nashville, and on North Front Street, and part of lot No. 174 in the original plan of said City, which was assessed in the name of S. K. Stout, and particularly described in the foregoing deed from Thos. K. Sneed, Collector to me: And whereas, I am willing that the same may be released to the said Geo. W. and E. H. Hammer, the purchasers of said lot from the Chancery Court; Now, therefore, in consideration of the sum of Fifty one Two dollars to me paid, the receipt of which is acknowledged (it being the amount of taxes, interest and legal fees expended by me in obtaining deed), I hereby release, remise, and forever quit claim to the said Geo. W. and E. H. Hammer all the right, title, claim and interest I may have, either in law or equity, in and to said house and lot, by virtue of said purchase and deed. This 15th day of December, 1873.
