sum of $25. - 9th to Howell Hoeddleston by due bill $25. - 10th to G. W. Harding, the balance due on note, for about $180. - 11th to Moses Cater by note due for about $350. - this a balance on original amount due him on note; and 12th to Thomas W. Sneed by account due for $325.

Now, I direct that my said Trustee take charge and possession of all of said property and hold the same until the 1st day of January next; and if by that time said creditors are not paid, my said Trustee will then advertise, by written notices in the neighborhood of Bellview, for ten days, and expose said property at public sale, and sell it to the highest bidder for cash: and with the proceeds, after satisfying the costs of this ~~of this~~ conveyance, he will, first, pay in full, if the funds are sufficient, all my said creditors: but if the funds are insufficient to pay all, share and share alike, then he will pay, first, all the above named creditors upon whose debts my friends are bound as endorsers and securities, to-wit: the Dudley debt or Judgement, and on to and including the 6th debt mentioned, to-wit: John M. Doslin. If the funds are not sufficient to pay these said claims in full, then my Trustee will pay them pro rata, share and share alike. If after paying them in full, there be a fund insufficient to pay all my creditors whose debts are mentioned, commencing with the 7th and ending with the 12th number, my Trustee will pro rata the same among them. Should there be any just creditor of mine whose claim is here omitted, I direct, upon proof of his claim, that my Trustee pay him in like manner as the last above named creditors. I further direct that my Trustee, should he have an opportunity between this and 1st January next, sell any or all of said property at private sale, and convey title to the purchaser upon such terms as may seem meet and proper for all concerned. And after satisfying all, should there be a surplus, he will pay the same over to me. Done in the City of Nashville, this the 6th day of September, 1875.

A. V. S. Lindsley, Jr. to Assignment of Lease Robt. Ewing, Jr.

Registered September 9, 1875.

For and in consideration of $1.00 to me in hand paid, the receipt of which I herewith acknowledge, I have this day assigned, transferred and conveyed to R. Ewing, Trustee, and do hereby assign, transfer and convey to said Ewing, all my Leasehold interest in and to a certain piece or parcel of land situated in Edgefield, Davidson County, Tennessee, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stake on the North side of Main Street, in Edgefield, about four feet East of a locust tree, it being the South East corner of the lawn or lot in which stands the dwelling house of Neill S. Brown; and running from said corner Northwestwardly, with the fence of Neill S. Brown, (180) one hundred and eighty feet to a stake; thence Northeastwardly (100) one hundred feet to a stake; thence Southwestwardly (180) one hundred and eighty feet to a stake on Main Street; thence along the line of said Street Southwardly (100) one hundred feet to the beginning; it being the same intended to be conveyed by Neill S. Brown, Sr. and wife to Neill S. Brown, Jr. and wife, by Deed registered in the Register's Office of Davidson County, in Book 49, page 388; the corrected Deed to which is registered in Book 54, page 267; and being the same Leased to me for 10 years January 1876, by Neill S. Brown, Jr. and wife Luella Brown, by their Lease registered in Book 56, pages 37 and 8 of the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee. To have and to hold to the said R. Ewing, Trustee, with full and complete power to rent or release the premises above described. But this conveyance and assignment is made to the said R. Ewing only as Trustee for my wife, Rebecca Lindsley, and in consideration hereof the said R. Ewing, Trustee as aforesaid, agrees to turn over to my said wife all the rents, issues and profits arising from said property, her receipt to be a sufficient discharge to him. Jno. J. Carney to Mortgage J. J. McGinnis

Registered September 13 1875.

I, John J. Carney, of Davidson County, Tenn, have this day bargained and sold to J. J. McGinnis, of said County and State, for the sum of Five Dollars to me paid, and the other consideration hereinafter mentioned, all the crop of Hay, Corn, Oats and Fodder, raised on the "John Cato" farm in the year 1875; said farm being located in the 23d Dist. of said County and State. I do covenant with the said J. J. McGinnis that I am lawfully possessed of said property, and have a good right to convey the same, and that it is unencumbered. But this sale is made for the following uses and trusts, and for no other purpose, that is to say: I am indebted to the said J. J. McGinnis in the sum of One Hundred and Sixteen and 40/100 Dollars, and am desirous to secure and make certain the payment of the same. Now, if I should pay the said debt on or before the 1st day of February, 1876, this sale to be void. But if I should not, then the said J. J. McGinnis, after giving the notice required by law in such cases, may expose the said property to public sale, and sell to the highest bidder for cash; and appropriate the proceeds, first, to the payment of the necessary expenses and costs; secondly, to the satisfaction of said debt of $116.40 ~~ten~~; and, thirdly, to pay the balance, if any there be, to me. This 11th day of Sept, 1875.
