C. G. Black To Mortgage S. B. Spurlock

Registered October 9th 1876.

I have this day bargained and sold, and do hereby transfer and convey to S. B. Spurlock for the consideration of Five Dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the other considerations hereinafter mentioned, the following described property, to-wit: nine beads, bedsteads and furniture; five bureaus; six washstands; one sociable; one half doz. parlor chairs; one marble top table; one work table; three dining tables; two kitchen tables; one side board; one Brussels carpet, and six two-ply carpets; one and a half dozen steel bottom chairs; one half dozen split bottom chairs; one portrait of General Jackson; three pictures; four dozen plates; six wash bowls and pitchers; and one heating stove. To him, his heirs and assigns forever. But this Deed is made for the following uses and trusts, and for no other purpose, to-wit: I have rented the "Broadway House", on Broad Street, Nashville, Tenn., to live in during the year 1877, and have given my four notes for the rent of said house for One Hundred and fifty Dollars each, making in all the sum Six Hundred Dollars - one of said notes payable each quarter, commencing the 1st January, 1877; and said S. B. Spurlock has signed said notes as my security; said notes are given to Thomas Callender, as Agent of the owner of said house, and I am desirous to secure said Spurlock against loss as my security on said notes. Now, if I should pay said notes as they fall due until all of said notes are paid, then this obligation shall be void; but should I fail to pay said notes, or any one of them, and my said security shall be compelled to pay the same or any part thereof, then the said S. B. Spurlock, as Trustee, may expose said property above described to public sale, after giving ten days notice of the time and place of sale in writing, or in the newspaper, and sell them to the highest bidder for cash; and appropriate the proceeds to the payment of said notes, and all expenses attending the same. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 7th Oct., 1876.

C. G. Black.
