Deputy, after having advertised said Sheriff's notice according to law, did offer the said property at public Sale at the Court House door in the City of Nashville, on the 17 day of March, 1875, at a Minimum price of One Hundred and twenty one 7/100 ($121.7/100) dollars, being the amount of said assessment, with penalties, interest and costs, whereof J. K. Fulton, of Nashville, Tenn, was the last minimum price, and there not being any other bid made, the same was duly declared purchased by the said J. K. Fulton, he paying to the Collector the sum of $121.[illegible] in lawful money of the United States; Now, therefore, I, D. B. Cliffe, Collector of Internal Revenue for the 5th Dist. Tenn, the period allowed by the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States for redemption of said property having expired, in consideration of the premises, do hereby transfer and convey to the said J. K. Fulton all the right, title and interest of the said A. K. Greenfield in the said described property, or to which he was entitled at the date at which, under said Revenue Laws, the lien of the United States attached. To have and to hold the same, unto the said J. K. Fulton in as per and ample a manner as I, as Collector of Internal Revenue aforesaid, am authorized and required to do by the Revenue Laws of the United States, but not further or otherwise. In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my Official Seal, this 14 day of July, 1875. Seal. D. B. Cliffe, Collector 5th Dist. Tenn.
Witness: H. L. Whitehead, Saml. C. Marshall

State of Tennessee } Personally appeared before me, James J. Bell, Clerk of the County Court of said County, D. B. Cliffe, Collector, and Saml. C. Deed

Registered Nov. 27, 1875.

For and in Consideration of the sum of Five dollars to me in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the further Consideration hereinafter mentioned, I have this day bargained and sold, and do hereby Release and Convey to James A. Fisher, his heirs and assigns forever, the following described property, to wit; A tract or piece of land in Davidson County, Tennessee, as follows; Being part of lot No 25 in original Plan of the Town of Edgefield, fronting forty four (44) feet on Bell street, and bounded as follows, to wit; Beginning at a stone, the Southwest Corner of a part of said lot sold and Conveyed by A. Stamp to C. L. Bowerton; and running thence Southwardly, along the margin of Bell street, forty four (44) feet to a stone; thence at right angles, Eastwardly, one hundred and thirty (130) feet to an alley twelve feet wide; thence at right angles, Northwardly, along said alley, forty four (44) feet to a stone; and thence at right angles one hundred and thirty (130) feet to the beginning; it being the piece of land Conveyed to me by A. Stamp, registered in Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, in book 50, page 485. To have and to hold the same, to the said James A. Fisher, his heirs and assigns forever. And I do hereby Covenant and agree with the said James A. Fisher, his heirs and assigns, that I am the lawful owner of said piece of land, and have full power to Convey the same, and the same is unincumbered. I further Covenant and agree and bind myself to warrant and defend the title to the same, to the said James A. Fisher, his heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whatever. But this Conveyance is made for the following purpose, and no other, that is to say; I am indebted to J. B. Spurlock in the sum of One hundred and thirty dollars, for goods this day purchased from him, payable on the first day of July, 1876, with interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from this date; Now, if I should well and truly pay off and discharge said note of One hundred and thirty dollars, and interest, upon maturity of the same, then this deed to be void; But should I fail to make such payment, then the said James A. Fisher, after having given notice by publication for twenty days in a Newspaper published in the City of Nashville, shall expose the same at public sale for cash to the highest bidder, in lots to be sold as one and not subject to
