Wm Glasgow
D & Release to M Henderson

Registered January 7th 1880

Whereas, the Stone String House built by me over the String on the line between my farm, and that now belonging to Mathew Henderson, was by an error of Measurement, erected to the extent of about five feet on the Land belonging to Said Henderson, And Whereas, it is not desired by said Henderson, or by me, that any expense Shall be incurred, in moving Said house, and the Said Henderson has expressed his willingness that Said house may remain as it is, Provided, his rights are not thereby in any Manner affected,

Now therefore, I William Glasgow, do hereby agree, and bind Myself, my Successors and Assigns, not to make any Claim to any portion of the Land of Said Mathew Henderson, by reason of the Contenuance of Said String House as it now Stands, I further agree, and bind Myself, my heirs and Assigns in Consideration of the permission to use the Land of Said Henderson on which a part of Said house is built to remove Said house, or cause it to be done, within a reasonable time after notice in writing by Said Henderson, his heirs or assigns, requesting Such removal, And in the event that it be not done, then Said Henderson, or any one Claiming, or owning Said Land after him, Shall have the Privilege of Removing Said house from Said Land, and Shall have a lien upon the Material of the building to Cover the expenses incured, Witness My hand this 1st December 1879. William Glasgow
