in trust for the purpose aforesaid, and in the event that I shall fail to pay either one of said notes at maturity, or suffer the same to be protested for nonpayment, I do hereby authorize and empower the said L. K. Spidel, as such trustee, to take said passenger wagon into his possession, and after having advertised for ten days in one or more of the daily papers of the City of Nashville, to sell said wagon to the highest bidder for cash, at public auction, at such place as he may deem best. And apply the proceeds of sale, First to the payment of expenses incident to the execution of said trust; Secondly, to the payment of such notes or note as may remain unpaid, whether the same be then past due or not matured; And thirdly, the remainder, if there be any, to me or my order. And all notes aforesaid not already matured shall be considered due, and suit may be brought on any or all them, without further delay. I hereby obligate myself to keep said passenger wagon in good order, and to have the same forthcoming at any time after default of payment of any one of said notes, on my part, whenever said trustee may make demand for it.

Dno. Bell
Do / Mortgage
Das. M. Patton.

Registered Febry 26. 1881.

Know all men by these presents: That I, John Bell, of the County of Davidson, and State of Tenn, am indebted, by note, to Jas. M. Patton, of Robertson County, Tenn, in the sum of about Seventeen hundred dollars - said note was executed about Nov. 1879, and bearing interest from date; Now, for the purpose of saving the said Patton in the payment of said note, I, the said Bell, have this day bargained and sold, and do hereby transfer and convey to the said Jas. M. Patton the following property, to wit; Thirty three head of sheep and their increase this year, and the wool which is to be taken from them this year; Fifty barrels of corn; One six year black horse mule; and a crop of wheat of (20) twenty acres, now growing on my farm in Davidson County, Tenn. All the foregoing property is situated on my farm, which lies in the Goodlettsville District of Davidson County, Tenn: Now, this is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the above note to the said Patton, and now if I should =, or cause to be paid, off said note on or before the 1st day of Augt. 1881, then this mortgage is to be void; But if I should fail to pay off said note by said time, then the said Patton is hereby authorized to sell said property herein conveyed, publicly, to the highest bidder for cash, after giving 10 days notice in writing, in the 3 public places, in the District aforesaid, of the time and place of said sale. This Febry 25. 1881. John Bell -
