Jno. G. Marshall
And Agreement
Stratton & Co.

Registered Jany. 20th 1882.

Be it known, that the following contract is this day entered into between Stratton & Co. and John G. Marshall; Stratton & Co. agree to buy and pay for 4 head of mules, at a cost of Four hundred and fifty dollars or less, if they can be bought for less - and the title to said mules to be vested in said Stratton & Co. until this contract has been complied with.

The said mules are to be taken charge of by the said John G. Marshall, and used by him with proper care and attention, in hauling lumber or logs from the vicinity of White's Creek to Sutherland's Mill, in East Nashville; and from Morris & Stratton's farm to Sutherland's Mill as aforesaid; and from the vicinity of Drake's Creek, Sumner Co., to Hendersonville or Goodlettsville. The said Marshall is to furnish 2 wagons, and keep them in proper repair, at his own expense. He is also to furnish one wagon and team additional, his own property. The said Stratton & Co. to pay the said Marshall two dollars ($2.00) per day, for each of the 3 teams he uses in removing said logs; and one dollar & fifty cents per day for his services. Said Marshall is to furnish feed for all the teams & drivers, shoeing mules and all necessary repairs to wagons, harness and all needed repairs to same at his own expense. Said Marshall is to take in pay for his services the 4 mules to be bought and paid for by said Stratton & Co., at cost for same and interest thereon - And to secure the said Stratton & Co. for the purchase of said mules a lien is hereby retained on the same by Stratton & Co, and the said Marshall agrees, in order to further secure the said Stratton & Co, to execute a lien or mortgage, and does hereby convey to the said Stratton & Co. the two mules now owned by him. The said Marshall is to keep a correct account of the number of days worked, and the number of teams worked each day - and is to make reports from time to time, not less frequent than every 3 weeks Co, of the amount of labor performed, number of teams used, and number of logs hauled. In case of the death or disability of said Marshall, the teams of 4 mules are to be sold, and the excess, after reimbursing said Stratton & Co., is to be paid to the estate of the said Marshall. Tolls on turnpikes to be paid by Stratton & Co. John G. Marshall -
