Wm. S. Dickinson.
vs.
The Unknown Heirs of Thos. E. Rutherford.

Registered June 26th 1880

Final Decree, June 15th 1880. — Wm. S. Dickinson — vs. — The unknown heirs of Thos. E. Rutherford. This cause coming on to be heard the 15th day of June 1880, before the Hon. W. M. Wisdom, Chancellor upon the pleadings, former proceedings. It appears to the Court that the Defendants the Unknown Heirs of Thos. E. Rutherford are not residents of this State but reside without the limits thereof, and that publication has been duly made for them to appear, answer or demur by its character in one of the newspapers used and by reference to the title deeds exhibited in the matter of the litigation and it further appears that they have not appeared or offered any defence to the allegations of complainants bill, which has accordingly been taken for confessed. It appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the Complainant is now the owner of a tract or parcel of land conveyed to him by John A. Dickinson and wife, on the 26th day of February 1873, which conveyance was duly recorded in the Registers Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, in Book No 44, pages 115-116 and 117 to which reference is here made said land is situated in the 18th Civil District of Davidson County, Tennessee, is bounded and described as follows, to-wit: A tract of Thirty Nine Acres, beginning at Mansy's Southeast corner on the Gallatin Pike: running down said Pike South 28° West 42 poles to the line of Mansy's Lane: thence with line of said lane 126 poles to an Old line indicated by a row of Peach trees: thence North 2° East with said line crossing the L. & N. R.R. about 30 poles in all 56 poles to the North West corner of the land: thence South 80° East, One hundred and forty poles to the beginning. Also a tract of 31/4 Acres beginning 23 poles from the centre of the L. & N. R. Road, at the corner of the Stone wall on the North side of a lane crossing said Railroad and runs thence North 89° West 78½ poles to a Stake in the Wall near a peach tree: thence North across the field 57¼ poles to a point in a stone wall and narrow lane: thence East with said lane 21 9.5 poles to a turn in the lane, thence North Eleven poles to a stone: thence South 87° East 56½ poles to a corner of the stonewall: thence South 1° West 68 poles to the beginning. It further appears, that Thomas E. Rutherford now dead, the ancestor of Defendants, sold and conveyed
