fages 120 & 121, to which reference is made for said tract of land. And this deed is made to convey my undivided moiety of said tract of land. And I covenant that I am lawfully seized of an undivided moiety of land and that I have a right to convey the same to the said land of two hundred & five dollars, said note bearing 6% interest to John D. Owen, and that I will forever warrant & defend title to the said John D. Owen, his heirs and assigns forever against the lawful claims of all persons. But the consideration of these covenants is for the following uses, I have this day transferred & assigned to J. D. Owen two hundred dollars, for which I have made & executed and delivered to him my promissory note for said amount, bearing date with this instrument, and due one year after this date, with interest from this date at 6 per cent per annum: Now, if I the said L. Cahal, shall well & truly pay said note and interest when it falls due, then the above conveyance shall be null and void but if I fail to pay the same when due, then the said John D. Owen is hereby constituted a Trustee, after advertising the time and place of sale in one or more of the newspapers in the city of Nashville, Tenn, for twenty days, may sell my said interest in said tract of land at Public outcry to the highest bidder at 6 months credit, with interest from date, to bar of the right of redemption, taking note with good and sufficient security for the purchase money and retaining a lien on the land until said note and interest is paid. The said Owen, as Trustee, shall first pay all cost and expenses incident to said sale secured, and the balance of said purchase money, if any, shall be paid to me. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the 25 of September 1880. L. Cahal
