and my nephew, Jacob McClsavock, and do appoint James R. McClsavock, Executors of this my last will and testament, and having full confidence that they will act justly, it is my wish and request no security be required of them, or either of them for the performance of their duties. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 6th day of July in the year 1835.

Seal R. McClsavock.

Supplement to the above will, to wit: having bequeathed to my son James R. McClsavock, all my lots and land near to and adjoining Franklin, I hereby the same in part, and now give and bequeath to my daughter, Mary C. now Mary C. Southall, & her heirs forever, all that part of said tract of land and lots which lies north west of the street running back of Doctor Ewing's lots, & in front of where Crocker and McGaw live to the back line of said tract, including the pasture ground and all the lots not heretofore sold & conveyed; and the house and lot in Nashville on Market Street, formerly owned by James Irvin, bequeathed to my said daughter, Mary. I hereby revoke that bequest, and now give and bequeath the same house & lot to my said son James R. McClsavock, & his heirs forever. Having lately acquired a lot in the town of Franklin to which a small house has has been removed, the number of said lot not recollected. I said bequeath the said lot to my son John McClsavock, to him & his heirs forever; and other property not named in the above will or acquired since the making thereof, I give and bequeath to my wife, Isabella McClsavock, to dispose of as she may think proper. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 7th day of Feb, 1841.

R. McClsavock.

N.B. The whole of the foregoing is in my own handwriting, and the erasure in the third page and interlineations were made by myself.

Ewing & Wife to McClsavock, Trustee

Registered Jany 29th 1881.

For and in consideration of the sum of Eight hundred 00/100 dollars, in hand, paid to us by Henry Sherry. We, Randle M. Ewing and wife, Ellen Ewing, and W. C. McClsavock, Trustee, have bargained and sold, and by these presents, do transfer and convey unto the said Henry Sherry, his heirs and assigns, a certain tract or parcel of land in Davidson County, State of Tennessee, as follows: Beginning at a point forty five (45) feet from the corner of Demonbreun Street and an alley; and running thence West wardly forty four (44) feet, parallel with said Street; thence Northwardly at right angles with said Street, one hundred and sixty six (166) feet, more or less, to an alley; and thence Eastwardly, parallel with said alley forty four (44) feet; and thence Southwardly one hundred and sixty six (166) feet, more or less, to the Beginning. Being a part of Lot No. 7. in the subdivision of original Lot No. 32 in the Dowell field Plan. See Plan of said subdivision of said lot recorded in R. O. D. C. Book 57, page 4. The above is a part of the property of James R. McClsavock, deceased, which was set apart to us by Commissioners, in accordance with a decree rendered by the County Court of Williamson County at its October Term of 1878, and reference is hereby made to said decree recorded in R. O. D. C. Book 61, pages 115 to 119. To have and to hold the said tract or parcel of land, with the appurtenances, estate, title and interest thereto belonging to the said Henry Sherry, his heirs and assigns, forever. And we, R. M. & Ellen Ewing & W. C. McClsavock, Trustee, do covenant with the said Henry Sherry, that we are lawfully seized and possessed of said land in fee simple, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unincumbered. And We, Randle M. and Ellen Ewing and W. C. McClsavock, Trustee, do further covenant and bind ourselves, our heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said land, to the said Henry Sherry, his heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever. Witness our hands, this 25 day of Jan 1881.

State of Tennessee, Randle M. Ewing, Ellen Ewing, W. C. McClsavock, Trustee.
Williamson County. Personally appeared before me, E. B. Campbell, Clerk of the County Court of said County, the within named Randle M. Ewing and wife, Ellen Ewing, and W. C. McClsavock, Trustee, the bargainors, with whom I am personally acquainted, and acknowledged that they executed the annexed instrument for the purposes therein expressed. And Ellen Ewing, wife of the said Randle Ewing, having personally appeared before me, privately, and apart from her husband the said Randle M. Ewing, acknowledged the execution of the said instrument to have been done by her freely, voluntarily, and understandingly, without compulsion or constraint from her said husband, and for the purposes therein expressed. Witness my hand, at office, this 25 day of January 1881. E. B. Campbell, Clerk.
