No. Bunch, et al to Deed T. L. Caldwell.

Registered April 21. 1552.

We, Louisiana Bunch and W. H. Bunch, have this day bargained, and sold, and do hereby transfer and convey, to Mrs. T. L. Caldwell, her heirs and assigns, forever, for the consideration of Eleven hundred dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, a parcel of land in the city of Nashville, Davidson County, Tenn, being Lot No 45, in the John Boyd Plan of lots, bounded & described, to-wit: Beginning at the corner of Lots No 45 and 49, in said Plan, running thence Westwardly, along the line of Hayes Street fifty feet to a stone; thence at right angles Southwardly one hundred and eighty feet to an alley twenty feet wide; thence with said alley fifty feet to the corner of Lots No 5 and 49; thence Southwardly, with the dividing line between said Lots, to the beginning. To have and to hold the same to the said Mrs. T. L. Caldwell, her heirs and assigns, with full power in her to charge and encumber by mortgage or deed of trust, to sell and convey by deed in fee simple, or to devise and bequeath by last will and testament, as though she were a feme sole, free from the liabilities, contracts and acts of her present or future husband. We do covenant with said Mrs. T. L. Caldwell that we are lawfully seized of said land, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unincumbered. We do further covenant and bind ourselves, our heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to said land, and every part thereof, to the said Mrs. T. L. Caldwell, her heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whatever. This 5th day of April 1552.

State of Tennessee, Davidson County. Louisiana Bunch, W. H. Bunch. Personally appeared before me, J. D. Brown, a Notary Public in and for said County, Mrs. Louisiana Bunch, and her husband, W. H. Bunch, the above and within named bargainors, with whom I am personally acquainted, and who acknowledged that they executed the foregoing instrument for the purposes therein expressed. And Mrs. Louisiana Bunch, wife of the said W. H. Bunch, having appeared before me, privately, and apart from her husband, the said W. H. Bunch, acknowledged the execution of the said deed to have been done by her freely, voluntarily, and understandingly, without compulsion or constraint from her said husband, for the purposes therein expressed. Witness my hand and official seal, this 20th day of April, 1552.

State of Tennessee, Davidson County. J. D. Brown, Notary Public. I, E. H. Woodall, Dep'y Clerk of the County Court of said County, do hereby certify that J. D. Brown, whose genuine signature appears to the attached deed is now, and was, at the time of signing the same, and acting Notary Public in and for said County, duly elected, commissioned and qualified as such, and his official acts are therefore entitled to full faith and credit. Witness my hand and official seal, at office in Nashville, this 20th day of April, 552. E. H. Woodall, Dep'y Clerk.
