Registered June 13, 1882

In consideration of Five dollars to us paid, and the other considerations to be hereafter named, we, Levine, Cronstine & Co, composed of Jacob Levine, S. Cronstine & M. Latner, engaged in selling cigars & tobacco and other articles pertaining thereto & kept in connection with that business, at No. 63 College street, Nashville, Tenn, near the Public Square, have this day sold, and do hereby convey unto N. Cronstine, of said City, our entire stock of cigars & tobacco, consisting of sundry boxes of tobacco - plug & twist; sundry caddies & boxes of cigars, of domestic manufacture; sundry smokers articles, pipes & cigar holders; as well as the fixtures & furniture in said Storehouse, consisting of two (2) shelves, four (4) counters, & one (1) cigar case. A schedule of all of our said property herein conveyed is hereunto filed, as Exhibit "A" to this conveyance, duly executed and authenticated. We likewise convey unto the said N. Cronstine, for the consideration above expressed, the following property, which is also specified in said Ex. A, Viz: One bay horse, about 7 hands high, & a covered spring wagon, used by us in the delivery of goods in the city. Also all of our books and accounts connected with our said business, the policies of insurance on our said stock, & such interest as we may have in the lease of the house occupied by us - which is likewise contained in Ex. A filed as a part of this conveyance. This conveyance, however, is made of the above described property to the said N. Cronstine, in trust, to receive and pay off our entire indebtedness, so far as the same will go - which indebtedness is as follows, (Viz):
