J. H. Currey, Trustee to C. H. Pullen, Trustee

200 acres, more or less, in 5th Dist.

(Registered Dec 14th 1883)

We, John H. Currey and wife, Mary Eastman Carry, both of the County of Davidson and State of Tenn, have this day bargained and sold, and do hereby transfer and convey, unto C. H. Pullen Trustee of Mrs. A. H. Pullen, his heirs and assigns, forever, for the consideration of Five dollars and the further consideration hereinafter mentioned, a tract or piece of land in Davidson County, State of Tennessee as follows: Being in the 5th Civil District lying on both sides of the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad between the first and second bridges of said Railroad over Mill Creek and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point in the South boundary line of the tract of land on which Thomas D. King formerly lived, now the of Rev. L. C. Bryan and running thence South 1 3/4° West one hundred & thirty (130) poles to the centre of Mill Creek; thence down the centre of Mill Creek with its meanders two hundred & forty-four (244) poles to a point in the middle of said Creek opposite the mouth of Little Mill Creek; thence continuing down the centre of Mill Creek with its meanders one hundred & fifty-five (155) poles to a point in the middle of said Creek, being the South-west corner of a tract of land owned by Benj. Turbeville; thence South S. 89° E. two hundred and eighty (280) poles to the beginning, containing by estimation two hundred (200) acres, more or less, being the tract of land conveyed to J. H. Currey by J. L. Provine by deed recorded in R. O. D. C. in book 45, pages 409-10-11. To have and to hold to the said C. H. Pullen, Trustee, his heirs and assigns, forever. And we do covenant and agree to and with the said C. H. Pullen, Trustee, that we are lawfully seized and possessed of said land, have a good right to convey it, and that the same is unincumbered. We do further covenant and agree and bind our selves, our heirs and representatives, to warrant and forever defend the title to the said land, to the said C. H. Pullen Trustee, his heirs and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whatever. But this conveyance is made for the following purpose and none other, That is to say, that we are indebted to said C. H. Pullen, Trustee, in the sum of $1400.00 evidenced by our note for said sum dated December 5th 1883 payable to his order and due three years after the date thereof with interest at six per cent per annum until paid. The interest on said amount we pay in advance for the first three months and execute our 11 notes for the sum of $21.00 each due, respectively, 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 21, 24, 27, 30 & 33 months after the date thereof. We are anxious to secure and make certain the payment of said debt & interest in full. Now, in the event we pay & discharge each and all of said notes as they, respectively, become due according to their tenor and effect, then this conveyance to be null and void and of no effect. But in event we fail to pay each & all of said notes at their maturity, then the said C. H. Pullen, Trustee, after giving thirty (30) days' notice of the time and place of sale in some newspaper published in Nashville may proceed to sell said land at public sale, to the highest bidder for cash, or on credit at his discretion and appropriate the proceeds of such sale, Firstly, to the payment of the expenses necessary to the execution of this trust, Secondly, to the satisfaction of said notes; and Thirdly, to pay the balance to us. In the event of a sale of said property we hereby agree to waive and release all our rights to a homestead in said property and agree that the same be sold free from the equity of redemption. And said Mary E. Currey also agrees to release her right of dower in said property in the event of the death of said John H. Currey. Should we pay said debt before the expiration of the three years as aforesaid then C. H. Pullen, Trustee agrees to release said lien and the interest is to cease at the time of said payment. Or if any part of said sum should before maturity be paid, then and in that event the interest is to cease on the sum thus paid. The right being reserved to pay said sum or any part of it within the three years. This 5th day of December 1883.

J. H. Currey. Mary E. Currey.

Received of J. H. Currey $1400.00 dollars in full and complete satisfaction of this mortgage. This instrument has been fully paid & is to be so held by relinquished Dec 18. 1886. Robert Vaughn, Atty for C. H. Pullen, Trustee.
