Will take a remainder and undivided interest in said tract of land at her death: And whereas, W. O. Scott, father of said C. W. Scott has purchased and undivided interest in said land from Marinie Ann Isleaves, wife of Ed F. Isleaves, a lawful heir of said Emily Cappage by her first husband: And whereas at the death of said W. O. Scott, the said C. W. Scott will fall heir to one third interest in this last-named interest from his father as one of his heirs, bought of Marinie Ann Isleaves: Now, therefore, for and in consideration of Six hundred ($600.00) dollars to me in hand, paid from L. C. Hessey and R. C. Fields, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I, C. W. Scott, do hereby transfer and convey to the said L. C. Hessey and R. C. Fields, their heirs and assigns or executors forever, all interest effected remainder or otherwise, that I now have or may have at any time, under the provisions of said Will, and at the death of said Emily Cappage, and also at the death of or if by deed or otherwise from my father W. O. Scott from the interest he bought from Marinie Ann Isleaves, in aforesaid property described as follows: (For minute information refer to the Will aforesaid) lying on the S. side of Stones River, beginning at a sugar tree standing on the Forgith road running N. 11 2 poles to a stake; then beginning at a stake 12 poles S.; thence E. 48 poles, to a hornbean; thence N. 44 4/4 poles to a stake; thence W. 136 poles, to a stake; thence S. with my line to two fallen Lynns; thence E. to beginning and bounded as follows: By the lands of Wm Dotson, on the N. by L. Chandler; on E. by Wm Dinkley and Jno. B. Isleaves, on S. and W. by W. O. Scott, on W., containing about one hundred acres, more or less, being the land now occupied by Emily Cappage to L. C. Hessey and R. C. Fields, their heirs and assigns, etc forever, To hold all right, title, claim an interest under the provisions of said Will and all right, title, claim and interest I may ever have in any way, to my father's (W. O. Scott) interest in said land, bought from Marinie Ann Isleaves. And I do hereby covenant with them, the said L. C. Hessey and R. C. Fields, their heirs and assigns and executors that I have a good right to convey, alien and sell said undivided remainder interests by Eli Cherry's Will and any and all effected interests in this particular land that my father is now possessed of, and I do further covenant and bind myself and all legal or personal representatives, to warrant and defend the title to said interests, remainder or effected to L. C. Hessey and R. C. Fields, their heirs, assigns, forever, against the lawful claims of any person or persons claiming under me in any manner whatever. Witness my hand and seal, this the Fifth day of Feby 1885.
