This Indenture witnesseth: That I, Jacob Bloomstein of Davidson County, Tennessee, do hereby bargain, sell and convey to Thomas Parker, of the same County and State, his heirs and assigns forever the following described real estate, viz: A tract of about six hundred acres of land, situated in Davidson County, Tennessee, in Bells Bend, sometimes called White's Bend of Cumberland River, and bounded as follows: Beginning at an water mark on said river in the division line between the land formerly owned by Lance Anderson and the heirs of Geo. Anderson; thence with said line, North 31 1/4° W. three hundred and ninety three poles to a rock in said division line; thence South 58 3/4° W. two hundred and forty poles to low water mark on Cumberland River, passing a rock on the bank at [illegible]; thence down said river and with its meanders to the beginning, being the same land conveyed to me by Geo. W. Anderson by deed registered in the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, Book No 42, page 404: I covenant that I am lawfully seized of said land, that I have a good right to convey the same, and that it is free from all encumbrance except a deed of Trust made by me to Levi J. Dreadtham to secure the payment to [illegible] of the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars. Said deed of Trust, to which this conveyance is subject is registered in said Register's Office in Book No 52, page 633, and for a more particular description of the same reference is here made to the deed as recorded: But this conveyance is made for the following uses and purposes and none other. I have this day borrowed and [illegible] the sum of $10.000.00 for which I have given my five (5) promissory notes for two thousand dollars ($2000.00) each, payable to said Dail, and due respectively one, two, three, four and five years from date, and dated of this date. For the interest on said notes, payable semi-annually. I have given separate notes as follows: All dated of this date, and payable to said Dail, two for $300.00 each due respectively six and twelve months from date: two for $240.00 each, due respectively eighteen & twenty-four months from date: two for $150.00 each due respectively 2 1/2 & 3 years from date; two for $120.00 each due respectively 3 1/2 & 4 years from date and two for $60.00 each, due respectively 4 1/2 & 5 years from date. And it is covenanted & agreed that at their maturity all of said notes given for the principal and all of said interest notes, when this conveyance shall become null and void. But if I fail to pay any one of said notes at maturity in which case all of the unpaid principal notes shall become due and payable, said Thomas Parker as trustee shall, after giving twenty days notice of the time and place of sale by
