presence, and acknowledged that the spame was their act & deed and that they were called upon to witness the same. Witness my hand & seal this 3rd day of April 1886.

Wm H. Morrow
Notary Public

(Rec'd May 5th 1886 at 2:55 P.M.)

W. D. Lester
To Trust
M. J. Horn

Registered May 8th 1886

For and in consideration of the sum of Five Dollars, cash in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged of Mrs Mary J. Horn, I, W. D. Lester, have borgained and sold and by these presents, do transfer and convey unto the said Mrs. M. J Horn, her heirs and assigns, A Certain lot of house hold goods, now in my house at 32 So Cherry Street Nashville Tennessee as described below. Four large bowsels carpets, Six woolen carpets, two hall carpets, Eight sets of furniture, consisting of bureaus, wash stands, wardrobes bedsteads, chairs, (12 dozen) stair carpet rods, about 2 dozen pictures, also beds, mattresses, counterpains, sheets &c, in fact every thing in my house at present to belonging to me, But this conveyance is made for the following cause and none other to wit: I have this day borrowed of Mrs. M. J. Horn, the sum of One Hundred Dollars and executed to her my promissory note payable in four months from date of this instrument But if I should fail to pay said note at maturity with all costs thereon then I authorize Mrs M. J Horn to sell the furniture herein conveyed at auction and appropriate the proceeds of the sale as follows, first to payment of said note of One Hundred Dollars with all costs or interest thereon, 2nd to payment of all costs of advertising same for sale. 3rd the balance to me, and if this note should be paid at maturity, then this conveyance shall be void and for nothing held Mrs M. J Horn is fully authorized and empowered by me to carry out the provisions of this instrument. Witness my hand this 31st day of March 1886

W. D. Lester.

State of Tennessee
Davidson County

Personally appeared before me John L. Finnegan A Notary Public of said County, the within named W. D. Lester, the borgainor with whom I am personally acquainted and acknowledged that he executed the annexed instrument for the purposes therein expressed. Witness my hands at office this 5th day of March 1886.

John L. Finnegan
Notary Public

(Rec'd May 7th 1886 at 10:05 A.M.)

M. R. Jackson
To Trust
C. Campbell Tr

Registered May 10th 1886

For the consideration of Five Dollars, and the further consideration hereinafter mentioned We M. R. Jackson and his wife Sophia A. Jackson, have borgained and sold, and do by these presents transfer and convey unto Claude C. Campbell Trustee, his successors in trust and assigns, the following described personal property now in our possession at our residence on the South side of Line street nearly opposite the Union Stock Yard in the 13th Civil District of Davidson County, State of Tennessee, viz: Seventeen (17) Bedsteads, beds and bedding, twelve (12) Washstands, Eight (8) Bureaus One (1) parlor set, Three (3) stoves, twelve (12) Carpets, all of our furniture and fixtures, One (1) show case, two (2) pairs Scales One (1) Cooking Range, and cooking utensils, and all kitchen and dining room furniture, including side Board Chairs of all kinds, table ware &c &c. in fact it is our purpose to include in this instrument, and we do hereby convey to the said Campbell, all personal property of every character and kind in and about our premises. To have and to hold to him the said Claude C. Campbell Trustee, his successors and assigns forever. But this conveyance is made in trust for the following purposes and no other towit: M. R. Jackson, One of the Grantors herein, is indebted to the firm of A. B. Spurlock & Co. as follows, One note for Six Hundred and Fifteen 27/100 ($615.27) dollars, dated Oct 14th 1885 and due One day after date with interest, One note for One Hundred and thirty two 50/100 ($132.50) dollars dated Dec 5th 1885 and due four (4) months after date, with interest from date, and One note for Six Hundred and eleven 02/100 ($611.02) dollars, dated March 31st 1886. due One day after date, with interest, and we are desirous of securing and making certain the payment of all three of said notes and all interest that may accrue thereon. Now if M. R. Jackson shall pay said three notes and interest on or before January 1st 1887. then this instrument is to be of no further force or effect But if he fails to pay said notes and interest by said 1st day of January 1887. as aforesaid, or any part of either of said sums according to the terms above expressed, then upon such default this conveyance remains in full force and effect and said Claude C. Campbell Trustee or his successor in trust is hereby authorized and empowered, upon giving ten (10) days notice by weekly publications in some newspaper published in Davidson County, Tennessee, to sell said property on the premises or at some auction House in Nashville Tenn, at his election, to the highest bidder for cash, and free from all exemptions, of every kind, which are hereby expressly waived