WHEREAS, the Bethel Church of Christ, for many years has owned a certain tract or parcel of land in the Fourteenth Civil District of Davidson County, Tennessee, on which there is located a building, which for more than fifty years, has been used for Church purposes by said Church; and

WHEREAS, the Church acquired title to this property either from J. G. Gentry and wife, L. Gentry or Fernando Nichols and wife, Mary J. Nichols, but the deed to said Church has been lost or misplaced and was never recorded in the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, the said J. G. Gentry and wife, L. Gentry, by deed dated November 30, 1894, conveyed the real estate owned by them to Abraham Earhardt, which deed is of record in Book 196, page 237, of the Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, and in said deed, the description of the property therein conveyed refers to part of the property as adjoining the Church lot, and by a chain of mesne conveyances, the real estate described in this deed has been conveyed to and now belongs to Mrs. Ada Bracey; and on February 22, 1895, Fernando Nichols and wife, Mary J. Nichols conveyed to B. F. Heriges the balance of the real estate adjoining said Church property, which deed is of record in Book 214, page 164, Register's Office of Davidson County, Tennessee, and in the description of the property conveyed by said deed, there was excluded by calls approximately one-half acre belonging to the Bethel Church of Christ, and by a chain of mesne conveyances, this real estate has been convsyed and is now owned by the said Mrs. Ada Bracey, with the result that the said Mrs. Ada Bracey is now the owner of all the property completely surrounding the real estate owned by the said Bethel Church of Christ; and

WHEREAS, there is some uncertainty as to the true lines of the Church property and it is now the desire of said Mrs. Ada Bracey and the Bethel Church of Christ to agree and settle upon the boundaries
