VS. Rule No. 66095

IN PART ONE OF THE CHANCERY COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY TENNESSEE

ERNESTINE JUDD, EUGENE JUDD, JOE THOMAS JUDD and MARY ANN JUDD

D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard the 8th day of April, 1949, before the Honorable Thomas A. Shriver, Chancellor, holding Part I of the Chancery Court at Nashville, Tennessee, upon the complainant's bill, the answer of the defendants by their guardian ad litem, the answer of the two defendants over fourteen years of age, and upon the proof in the case; from all of which it appearing to the Court that the acceptance of the offer of $5500.00 in cash made for the property of the parties to this case is for the best interests of all the parties and particularly for the minor defendants;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, adjudged and decreed by the Court:

I

That the complainant, Josie Green Judd, is the owner of an undivided one-half interest in said property and that she is also entitled to dower in the other undivided one-half interest, and that each of the defendants is the owner of an undivided one-fourth interest in an undivided one-half interest, subject to their mother's dower in said undivided one-half interest.

II

That upon payment by the purchasers in cash of said purchase price of $5500.00 all the right, title and interest of all the parties to this suit in said property hereinafter described be and shall thereupon be divested out of said parties and shall be vested in James P. Robinson and wife Jean Hoginbotham Robinson, said purchase price to be paid as follows:

The sum of $2750.00 shall be paid directly to Mrs. Josie Green Judd, to be evidenced by a receipt signed by her and
