MINUTE BOOK 67

PAGE 289

This cause came on to be heard this 25th day of March, 1949, before the Honorable Byrd Douglas, Judge, upon the original petition, and the Exhibits thereto, the answer of the guardian ad litem, the pro confesso heretofore duly and regularly entered, upon all the pleadings, and upon the entire record in the case, and especially upon the report of the jury of View heretofore appointed by the Court, which said report was filed on March 18th, 1949, and upon motion of the petitioner, City of Nashville, to confirm said report. The said report of the Jury of View reads as follows:

REPORT OF JURY OF VIEW

We, the undersigned Jury of View, or Jury of Inquest, heretofore nominated and appointed by the Court to go upon the land hereinafter described and fix the value thereof to the owners because of the taking of same by the City of Nashville under its power of eminent domain, respectfully report as follows:

After receiving the instructions of the Court and being duly sworn by the Sheriff to freely and impartially, without favor or affection, lay off, by metes and bounds, the land required for the proposed improvement, and to inquire and assess the damages, we proceeded to personally examine and inspect the ground and land hereinafter described, and heard all such testimony as was offered, and we set apart, metes and bounds, a sufficient quantity of land for the purposes intended, which said land is the same as that described in the original petition and which is described as follows:
