No. 739

ORDER TERMINATING RECEIVERSHIP AND DIRECTING CONVEYANCE OF PROPERTIES

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Elmer D. Davies, District Judge, upon the entire record, and more especially upon the motion of the plaintiffs for a modification of the order directing the accounting, which motion was filed on January 10, 1941, the motion of the plaintiffs for an order directing the conveyance of properties, which motion was filed on February 8, 1941, and the report of Alfred T. Adams, Receiver of the Sunday School Union of African Methodist Episcopal Church, filed on March 8, 1941, and upon consideration thereof the Court stated that the plaintiffs were entitled to have their motion for an order terminating the receivership and directing a conveyance of the real estate described in the order entered on June 13, 1940 granted at this time, provided the real estate therein described constituted all of the real estate, the title to which was claimed by the plaintiffs in this cause, and which was, therefore, the subject of controversy, whereupon plaintiffs' attorney in open Court stated that plaintiffs and intervenors were willing to waive their claim to the title to all properties not described in the order entered on June 13, 1940, and to elect to seek a personal recovery of Ira T. Bryant for the enforcement of the rights of the African Methodist Episcopal Church arising from the improper use of funds held by the Sunday School Union of African Methodist Episcopal
