IN THE CHANCERY COURT
PART TWO
DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable William J. Wade on the 18th day of March, 1948, and former days of the term upon the entire record, and upon the testimony of the parties and their witnesses in open court, from all of which it appears to the Court that the defendant has deserted complainant without cause for more than two whole years next preceding the filing of the bill, as averred in the bill; and it further appears to the Court that the averments of the cross-bill are not sustained by the proof;

It is therefore by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed that the complainant have of the defendant an absolute divorce and be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person; and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the cross-bill be and the same is hereby dismissed.

And it further appearing to the Court that the complainant is entitled to alimony from the defendant, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed that for her alimony and support, title and interest of the defendant in and to the following tract or parcel of property lying in Davidson County, Tennessee, consisting of an undivided one-half interest, be divested out of the defendant and vested in the complainant:
