IN THE THIRD CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1953.

MARGUERITE M. HARKINS	*	MINUTE BOOK 48
VS	*	PAGE 387
DONALD LEO HARKINS	*

This cause came on to be heard on this the 5th day of February, 1953, before the Honorable E. F. Langford, Circuit Judge, upon the bill of complaint, the answer and cross bill and the cross answer and the oral testimony of witnesses heard in open Court and upon the entire record.

And it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the facts set forth in the complainant's bill are true, and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper for her to remain under his dominion and control.

And it further appearing to the court that the complainant is a woman of good character, and a suitable person to have custody and control of their two minor children, Joseph Patrick Harkins, age 14, and Barbara Louise Harkins age 11, and that she is entitled to alimony for herself, maintenance and support for said children and further that she is entitled to all the personal household property and effects now in their home and is entitled to the property located at 903 Weather Place in Davidson County, Tennessee. The cross bill of the defendant is hereby dismissed.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing and subsisting between the complainant and the defendant, be and the same are forever, absolutely and perpetually dissolved and the complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.
