a newspaper published in the City of Nashville, stating that at the south door of the courthouse in Nashville at 12:00 Noon, on Saturday, February 17, 1951, I would sell said above described property upon said terms, at which time and place I attended and offered the same, when said property was fairly struck off and sold to Roddy L. Story & wife, Dorothy Ruth Story, for $250.00. The purchasers complied with the terms of sale by paying $250.00 in cash.

Respectfully submitted,
JAS. E. COVINGTON,
CLERK AND MASTER

BY William H. Crabtree
D. C. and M.

And said report having been on file more than five days and unexcepted to, is by the Court, in all things confirmed.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that all right, title and interest in and to said land be divested out of defendant and vested in the purchasers Roddy L. Story and wife Dorothy Story, subject to the equity of redemption as provided by law.

Out of the proceeds of said sale the Clerk and Master will pay:

1. The costs of this cause.

2. The State taxes that may be against said land through 1950.

3. The balance will be applied to taxes due the City of Nashville and Davidson County through 1950 in proportion to total amount due each.

The lien for all taxes is hereby removed from said land and transferred to the fund in the hands of the Clerk and Master.

Said land is described as follows:

Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being part of Lot [illegible] Harrow Grove Plan. Re-
