WE BELEEVE IN:

1. ONE GOD who reveals Himself as (a) Father, Creator of the natural order of all things; and Begettor of spiritual children through a supernatural change known as the New Birth; (b) Jesus Christ, the supernatural begotten Son of God, born of a virgin mother, who lived among men, was crucified as a vicarious sacrifice for the redemption of lost souls, died, was buried, yet arose from the grave and ascended to God, and will return to the earth a second time; and (c) the Holy Ghost, a real personality, who is now in the world working in and through the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ; and

2. ONE authoritative divinely inspired source of revelation, to wit, the Holy Bible; and

4. IMMORTALITY of the soul, with eternal blessings for the saved and eternal punishment for the impenitent; and

5. THE CHURCH, a local assembly of baptized believers, voluntarily organized for the purpose of worship, fellowship, development in Christian graces and the carrying out of the will of Christ. It has two symbolic (not mystical) ordinances, to wit; (a) Baptism, the immersion of a believer in water upon the authority of the church; (b) and the Lord's Supper, partaken of by baptized believers under the direction of the church and as a memorial of Christ's death for sin; and
