IN THE FIRST CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

GRACE FORD THOMAS | MINUTE BOOK 100

VS. NO. 74178 |

CLYDE WILBURN THOMAS | PAGE NO. 396

D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Richard P. Dews, Judge, Part I, Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill, answer thereto, proof in open Court, and argument of counsel, from all of which the Court is satisfied that the allegations of the complainant's bill have been fully sustained; that is, the defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards her as to render her condition intolerable and thereby force her to withdraw from him.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be and the same are hereby perpetually dissolved and the complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It appearing to the Court that the parties are owners of certain furniture and household goods and of a piece of real property located at 1510-1512 Forrest Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee and that there is now a mortgage on the said real property in the amount of $1421.36 and that the defendant has no other estate out of which permanent alimony might be awarded.

It is therefore, ordered adjudged and decreed that the said household goods and furniture of the parties be awarded to the complainant as permanent alimony.

It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that all right, title and interest that the defendant might have in the following described property:
