VS. No. 23952	(	PAGE NUMBER	455
MARJORIE LUCILLE SLOAN	)

D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard on this the 12th day of November, 1953, before the Honorable Byrd Douglas, Judge, Circuit Court, Part II, upon the petitioner's bill of complaint, the pro confesso heretofore entered against the defendant, the oral testimony heard in open Court and upon the entire record. From all of which the Court is of the opinion that the facts set forth in petitioner's bill are true, and that he has lived in Tennessee for more than two whole years next preceding the filing of the bill herein and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards him as to render it unsafe and improper for him to further conabit with her.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing and subsisting between the complainant, James Douglas Sloan and the defendant, Marjorie Lucille Sloan, be and the same are forever dissolved, absolutely and perpetually, and the petitioner be restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.
