DECREE OF DECEMBER 16, 1954 IN MINUTE BOOK 64, PAGE 250

MARIE FITZPATRICK	)
	)	IN THE CHANCERY COURT
VS. NO. 75250	)	PART II
	)	AT NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE
CHARLES W. FITZPATRICK	)

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable J. C. Dale, Jr., Special Chancellor, on December 16, 1954, upon the original bill filed in this cause by the complainant, but the following paragraph was, on motion of the complainant, stricken therefrom:

> "About one year ago, or in 1953, the defendant over some minor situation became angry at their son and met the child in the street and proceeded to kick the boy all the way into the house. This caused both the complainant and the child great humiliation and embarrassment.";

the answer of the defendant, all the pleadings in the cause, oral testimony heard in open Court and argument of counsel, and the entire record; from all of which the Court finds that the allegations of the original bill are fully sustained by the proof, that is, that the defendant Charles W. Fitzpatrick has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as renders it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him, and be under his dominion and control.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and defendant be, and the same are hereby, perpetually dissolved, and the complainant Marie Fitzpatrick is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.
