IN THE THIRD CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

CORINNE L. RAY )
)
V. ) No. 26397
)
ALVIN D. RAY )

D E C R E E

This cause came on to be heard before the Hon. E. P. Langford, Judge of the Third Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on Tuesday, May 31, 1955, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, Corinne L. Ray, and the judgment pro confesso heretofore entered in this cause upon the failure of the defendant, Alvin D. Ray, to plead, answer or demur within the time required by law.

From the pleadings in said cause, oral testimony heard in open court, statement of counsel, and from the entire record in the cause, the Court was of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill were fully sustained by the proof, that is, that the defendant, Alvin D. Ray, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant, Corinne L. Ray, as renders it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him and be under his dominion and control.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant, Corinne L. Ray, and the defendant, Alvin D. Ray, be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, the complainant is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, and she is further restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties to this cause have entered into a property settlement with respect to their property rights, which settlement is in words and figures, as follows:
