For and in consideration of the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty ($1250.00) Dollars cash in hand paid to us by James C. Head and wife, Lucy E. Head the receipt of which we do hereby acknowledge, We, J. R. Young, W. I. Young, Lou Young Burnett, Elizabeth Young Bullard, and Gladys Young Hammond have bargained and sold and by these presents do transfer and convey unto the said James C. Head and wife, Lucy E. Head, their heirs and assigns, all of our right, title and interest in and to a certain tract or parcel of land in Davidson County, State of Tennessee, described as follows:

> A certain lot or parcel of land situated in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and being more particularly bounded and described as follows:
> Being Lot No. 24, on the Map of George Shields, 2nd Addition to North Nashville, as of record in Book 57, page 146, of the Register's Office for Davidson County. Said Lot No. 24 fronts 50 feet on the southerly side of St. Louis Avenue, and runs back between parallel lines 150 feet to an alley, and being the same property conveyed to Louella Epps by deed recorded in Book 457, page 4, R.O.D.C., Tenn., and being a house and lot deeded to the undersigned R. J. Whiteside by Louella Epps, and her husband on September 20th, 1922, by deed duly recorded in Book 600, page 266, R.O.D.C., Tennessee.
> Being the same property last conveyed to Carrie Young Quarles and her children their heirs and assigns by deed from R. J. Whiteside, et ux, of record in Book 971, page 653, Register's Office for said County.

We, together with our brother Raymond Young, each own a 1/7 undivided interest in and to said above described property which we took under the deed aforesaid to our mother, Carrie Young Quarles, we being her children, who are referred to in said deed she only having had as her children us and the said Raymond Young. Our said Mother, Carrie Young Quarles died intestate in Davidson County, Tennessee, a
