This cause came on to be heard this March 7, 1956, before the Honorable Byrd Douglas, Judge of the Second Circuit upon the original bill of complainant, the pro confesso heretofore entered against the defendant and the oral testimony heard by the court, from all of which it appears to the court that the allegations of the bill are supported by the proof:

That is that defendant is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct, as renders it unsafe and improper for the complainant to consbit and be under his dominion and control.

That defendant has abandoned complainant and turned her out of doors, and refused or neglected to provide for her.

IT IS ACCORDINGLY ORDERED AND DECREED BY THE COURT that complainant have an absolute divorce and she is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried woman.

It is further ordered and decreed by the court that the complainant have the custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Suzan Lee, with leave granted defendant to see and visit with said child at reasonable times and places. It is further ordered and decreed by the court that all right, title and interest of defendant in and to the real estate herein
