being all of the property of like kind, character and description owned by first parties, or either of them, and located at the aforesaid premises, and in addition thereto all other goods and chattels of first parties, or either of them, kept or used in or about the aforesaid premises or commingled with or substituted for any property herein mentioned.

To have and to hold all and singular the said goods and chattels unto said second party, forever. The first parties covenant that they EXCLUSIVELY OWN AND POSSESS SAID CHATTELS and that there is no lien, claim or encumbrance against said chattels or any part thereof, or conditional purchase title except UPON CONDITION, that if said parties shall pay the above mentioned indebtedness and other said obligations in accordance with the terms and provisions of the obligations evidencing same, and perform all obligations and agreements herein contained, then this instrument shall cease and be void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

But if default be made in the payment of said indebtedness in accordance with the terms of said note, or in payment of any other said obligation, or in the performance of the terms and obligations of this instrument, or if first parties shall remove or attempt to remove all or any part of said property from the above described premises without the written consent of the second party, then and from thenceforth, it shall be lawful for second party, and second party is hereby authorized, to declare all of said indebtedness and obligations to be due, and to take possession of and to sell all or any part of said property for cash, at either private or public sale, as hereinafter provided; and out of the money so derived to pay all expenses of sale, and thereafter the aforesaid indebtedness, and any other said obligation, so far as same will permit, with interest, if any, and attorney's fee provided in the aforesaid note, rendering the surplus, if any, unto the first parties. Second party may buy at such sale, and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this instrument said second party is authorized and empowered to enter upon the premises of first parties or any place where the aforesaid property, or any part thereof, may be found, and take possession thereof and dispose of same as hereinbefore provided.

In event of public sale, same may be made at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, at such place as second party elects, and after such advertisement and/or notice as complies with law. In event of private sale, same may be made without advertisement at any time after five days written notice delivered to the first parties, or mailed to their last known post office addresses.

Until default hereunder or in payment of aforesaid indebtedness, first parties may retain possession of the aforesaid property, unless same be demanded in writing by second party, the possession of said property by first parties to be deemed to be for the benefit of second party.

It is expressly understood and agreed that the parties of the first part shall not sell, dispose of or remove from the premises where now located the above described property without first obtaining the consent in writing of the party of the second part; that they will keep same insured against loss by fire, theft, collision and any other casualty required by Second Party; that they will conform with all the laws and ordinances governing said property; that they will pay all taxes whatsoever which may be levied or assessed against same. In the event said mortgagor shall neglect or refuse to obtain said insurance or pay all taxes that may be levied against said goods and chattels, then said mortgagee may at its option obtain such insurance and pay all such taxes and assessments aforesaid, and all sums of money thus expended are hereby secured by these presents, and shall be due and payable with interest upon demand of said mortgagee to said mortgagor, and may be retained by said mortgagee from the proceeds of any sale of said goods or chattels hereunder.

The first parties have no obligation to procure insurance hereinabove provided for and in case any insurance procured be cancelled or otherwise expire, the second party is hereby specifically relieved of any liability or obligation to procure other insurance, and shall have no further obligation to first party except the return of any unearned premium, and second party shall have the right to procure from any source in its discretion an adequate amount of insurance to protect its interest in the property mortgaged, but second party has no obligation to do so, and first party agrees to pay premium therefor.

All the powers and rights granted hereunder to second party may be exercised by any agent or agents, assigns and parties of any holder of the aforesaid indebtedness. This instrument shall be respectively binding upon and inure not only to the benefit of each and both the parties of the first and second parts, but also their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns. Wherever used, the singular number shall include the plural, and the plural the singular.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said first parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, this 17 day of Aug, 19 56
