This cause came on to be heard this February 4, 1947, before the Hon. E. F. Langford, Judge of the Third Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, Ona Lee Reavis, and the answer filed by the defendant, Harry Lewis Reavis, and from the pleadings in the cause, oral testimony heard in open Court, and argument of counsel, the Court was of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill were well taken, that is, that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as rendered it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him and be under his dominion and control.

It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the complainant, Ona Lee Reavis, be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be and they are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, and the complainant, Ona Lee Reavis, is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the complainant, One Lee Reavis, is the fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child, Harry L. Reavis, Jr., she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the said child, with the right to the defendant to see said child at all reason-
