Defendant X

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this, and/ former days of the term, 1957 before the Honorable William J. Wade, Chancellor, holding Part II of the Chancery Court at Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of the complainant, Bernice Aydelott and the order pro confesso heretofore entered against the defendant, Dahlia Ishmal Aydelott, the oral testimony of witnesses examined in open court upon the statements of counsel and upon the entire record, and further upon complainant's application to amend her original bill so as to pray for an absolute divorce instead of a divorce from bed and board. From all of which the court is of the opinion that the allegations set forth in complainant's bill are supported by the proof and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper for complainant to be under the dominion and control of the defendant and that complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant.

II

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court
