DECREE OF AUGUST 19, 1958 IN MINUTE BOOK 183, PAGE 390

C. P. WILLIAMS, JR.	)
	)	IN THE CHANCERY COURT
VS. NO. 79083	)	PART I
	)	AT NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE
NELLIE MAI WILLIAMS, ET AL	)
	)

This cause came on to be heard the 3rd day of July, 1958, before the Honorable Ned Lentz, Chancellor, holding Part I of the Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, at Nashville, upon the entire record, including the original bill of complainant, C. P. Williams, Jr., and exhibits thereto, the joint and several answer and cross-bill of defendants, Nellie Mai Williams, et al; the answer of complainant, C. P. Williams, to said cross-bill, the answer of the Guardian ad Litem of the defendant, Sarah E. Williams, the petition of C. P. Williams, Jr., et al, heretofore filed in this cause, and exhibit thereto, and the testimony of witnesses examined in open court;

And it appearing to the Court that the complainant, C. P. Williams, Jr., and the defendants, Nellie Mai Williams and Sarah E. Williams, are owners as tenants in common of a certain tract of land situated in Davidson County, Tennessee, and described in the pleadings, containing 174.64 acres, more or less, the complainant owning an undivided 4/10 interest therein and each of the aforesaid defendants owning an undivided 3/10 interest therein, the rights of the parties are declared accordingly, and it is so ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court;
