IN THE SECOND CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

THE OCTOBER TERM, THE TWELFTH DAY OF OCTOBER,

1956

Frances S. Still,	)	AS OF RECORD IN
vs. 28671	)	MINUTE BOOK 79
Lloyd L. Still	)	PAGE 274

This matter came on for hearing on this the 12th day of October, 1956, before the Honorable Byrd Douglas, Judge, upon the original bill of the complainant, the answer of the defendant, the testimony of witnesses appearing in open Court and the argument of counsel, from all of which the court finds that the complainant has made out her case as charged, to-wit: that the defendant has abandoned her or turned her out of doors, and refused or neglected to provide for her and that she is entitled to an absolute divorce, custody of the child, alimony in the nature of the property and support for the said child.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant be, and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved and that the complainant be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Lloyd L. Still, Jr., be awarded to complainant with the right and privilege to the defendant to see said child at reasonable times and places, and more specifically he shall have the right to have the child visit and be with him on either Saturday or Sunday of each week.

It is further ordered and decreed by the court that the defendant shall pay unto the complainant the sum of $7.50 per week towards the maintenance and support of said child, and said payments to commence the 15th day of October, 1956, and a like payment to be made on each Monday thereafter until further ordered by the Court.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that all right, title and interest in and to the real estate owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety, which property is des-
