LOIS TAYLOR RICHARDSON	)	IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE
V.	)
NORMAN DAVIS RICHARDSON	)	No. 33886

DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Hon. Richard P. Dews, Special Judge holding the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, on Friday, August 28, 1959, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, Lois Taylor Richardson, and the judgment pro confesso heretofore entered in this cause upon the failure of the defendant, Norman Davis Richardson, to plead, answer or demur within the time required by law. From the pleadings in the cause, oral testimony heard in open court, statement of counsel, and from the entire record in the cause, the Court was of the opinion that the allegations of the original bill were fully sustained by the proof, that is, that the defendant, Norman Davis Richardson, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards her as renders it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him and be under his dominion and control;

It is, therefore, Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant, Lois Taylor Richardson, and the defendant, Norman Davis Richardson, be and the same are hereby forever and perpetually dissolved, the complainant is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and she is further restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It further appearing to the Court that the parties to this cause have heretofore agreed upon a property settlement, which has been submitted to the Court, as follows:
