DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on June 14, 1960, and upon a prior day of the term before the Honorable Benson Trible, Judge, Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill filed by the complainant, answer of the defendant, witnesses heard in open Court, statement of counsel and from the entire record in this cause. From all of which the Court is of the opinion and finds as follows: that the complainant, Clannie Herd Williams, did successfully prove her cause of action and therefore, should be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Richard Gordon Williams, upon the statutory ground of cruel and inhuman treatment as alleged in the original bill. That the best interest and welfare of the minor children will be served by their remaining in the care and custody of the complainant and for the support and maintenance of said minor children, the pendente lite order at $36.50 per week shall remain in full force and effect until further orders of this Court.

That the parties own an equity as tenants by the entirety in their homeplace located on Berkley Drive, Madison, Tennessee, the value of said equity being stipulated to the Court by the parties as Eleven Thousand Six Hundred ($11,600.00) Dollars and it is the intention of the Court that the complainant shall receive as part of her alimony, all right, title and interest that the defendant now has in and to said homeplace and in and to all the household furnishings now located and situated in said homeplace and that all interest of the defendant shall by this decree be divested out of him and reinvested in the complainant, but subject to any encumbrances of record and that the defendant shall not be required to free said homeplace of encumbrances or continue to pay on the mortgage indebtedness now outstanding against said homeplace. Further, the automobile now in the possession of and treated as the property of the complainant shall be hers without any claim made thereto by the defendant; and further, as final settlement of the property rights of the parties, the Court is of the opinion that an additional award in the amount of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars should be made to the complainant and the said sum shall be reflected as a judgment against the defendant, for which execution may issue, if necessary. Further, that any right, title and interest the complainant may have in and to any of the
