This cause came on to be heard on this the fifth day of June, 1951 in Part II of the Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, the Honorable John M. Cate, Special Judge, presiding; on the original bill filed in this cause, the pro confesso granted thereon, the testimony of witnesses examined in open court, and argument of counsel.

And it appeared to the Court that the allegations of the original bill herein are sustained; that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct toward the complainant, as to make it unsafe and improper for her further to cohabit with him, or to be under his dominion and control; and furthermore, that the defendant has abandoned the complainant, turned her out of doors, and refused or neglected to provide for her.

It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and the defendant, be, and they are hereby dissolved and for nought held, and that the complainant be, and she is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and restored to all the rights, privileges and prerogatives of an unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the minor daughter of the parties, Dolores Jean Lawson, four years old, be, and she is hereby given into the custody of the complainant, with the privilege of the defendant to see and be with her at reasonable times and places and for reasonable periods of time. It is also ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the defendant pay into the clerk of the Court, the sum of
