DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on the 5th day of March, 1962, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the Original Bill of Complaint, the answer of the defendant, the testimony of the parties, the testimony of witnesses heard in Open Court, the argument of counsel, and the entire record in this cause. Upon a consideration of all of which, it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the allegations contained in complainant's bill are true and have been fully sustained by proof and that the defendant, Donald Lee Heckman, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct towards complainant as renders further co-habitation unsafe and improper and for her to be under his dominion and control; therefore, complainant should be awarded a decree of absolute divorce. It further appears to the satisfaction of the Court that complainant should be awarded custody of the minor children of the parties, subject to reasonable rights of visitation by the defendant. It further appears to
