Luila Hand Proctor
vs
Melvin Proctor
Decree
21148

IN THE SECOND CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE,

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24th, 1955.

LUILA HAND PROCTOR)
) MINUTE BOOK 76
VS. NO. 2[illegible]87)
MELVIN PROCTOR)

This cause came on to be heard on this the 24th day of February, 1955, before the Honorable Byrd Douglas, Judge, etc., on the original bill of complainant, a motion pro confesso, oral testimony heard in open court, and argument of counsel from all of which the court is of the opinion that the allegations set out in complainant's bill are sustained; that is that defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment of complainant as to render further cohabitation with the defendant unsafe and improper for complainant to be under his dominion and control.

The court is further of the opinion that the real property located at 2609 Woody Hill Drive and owned by the parties to this action as tenants by the entirety should be awarded to the complainant as alimony in solido.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between the complainant and defendant be and the same are hereby perpetually and absolutely dissolved, and complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that title to the real estate now owned by the parties as tenants by the entirety be divested out of the defendant and be divested in the complainant, said property being located at 2609 Woody Hill Drive, legal description as follows, to wit:
