FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this 23rd day of July, 1962, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill, the answer filed by the Defendant, the testimony of Complainant and her corroborating witnesses heard in open Court, the evidence, statements of counsel, and the entire record in the cause; from all of which the Court is of the opinion that the allegations of the Bill are sustained by the Proof and the Defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper; and the property settlement agreement by the parties is reasonable and proper;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony subsisting between the Complainant, Mary Beasley Demastus, and the Defendant, James Tillman Demastus, be absolutely and forever dissolved, and Complainant is hereby vested with all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

The exclusive care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, Brenda Kaye and Carol Denise, is hereby committed to the Complainant. Defendant shall have the right and privilege to visit and be with the said minor children at Complainant's residence during reasonable hours on each Saturday. Further, the Defendant is hereby enjoined and restrained from bringing said children into contact or association in any manner whatsoever with one Joyce Brewer.
