(DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE.
VS (No. 35078

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard this 17th day of August, 1962, upon the original bill, the amendment thereto, the pro confesso entered thereon, the testimony of the complainant and her witnesses, and the argument of counsel, from all of which the Court finds that the allegations of the bill as amended are sustained as to cruel and inhuman treatment, that is to say, the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment and conduct towards the complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper.

The Court further finds that the complainant is a fit and proper person to have custody of the minor children of the parties and should have exclusive custody of them. The Court further finds that the property of the parties consists only of the equity of redemption in a certain tract or parcel of land in Davidson County, Tennessee, described as follows:

> Being Lot No. 11 on the Plan of Rothwood, Section 1, of record in Book 1424, page 134, Register's Office for said County.
> Said Lot No. 11 fronts 70 feet on the easterly margin of Ambrose Avenue and extends back eastwardly 212.7 feet between parallel lines to a dead line in the rear, measuring 70 feet thereon.
>
> Being the same property conveyed to Gene Trusty and wife, Emily Trusty, by deed from Oliver F. Brooks, Jr., and wife, Clara Mai Brooks, of record in Book 2644, page 163, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee.

The Court finds that the above described real estate should be and hereby is awarded to the complainant Emily Poston Trusty as alimony and title to the same, subject to any recorded encumbrances, is hereby vested in said complainant free and clear of all right, title and interest of the defendant.
