FINAL DECREE

This cause came on for further hearing on the 13th day of December, 1962, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the motion of the original complainant herein to have her divorce which has heretofore been granted a mensa et thore made absolute, upon the testimony of the complainant, argument of the solicitors and the entire record in this cause, all of which the court took under advisement and delivered the decision of the court by memorandum opinion of December 18, 1962, and authenticated by the signature of the Judge, which memorandum opinion is hereby ordered filed as part of the record in this cause. From all of which the court is of the opinion that there is no possibility of a reconciliation in this cause, and the divorce heretofore granted a mensa et thore should be made absolute, and further, the court is of the opinion that all of the right, title and interest of the defendant in and to the real and personal properties of the parties should be divested from him and vested in the complainant to be here in fee simple title.

Further, the court is of the opinion that the equities in this cause will best be served by forgiving any and all arrearage in the child support payments heretofore ordered paid by the
