TO THE JUDGES OF THE CHANCERY AND COUNTY COURTS FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

ETHEL CORNWELL FIKE

VS.

WILLIAM MARK FIKE

NO. 41580

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard this the 28th day of June, 1963 before the Honorable Beacon Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee upon the original bill for divorce filed by the complainant herein, and the pro-confesso taken against the defendant and upon the testimony of the complainant and her witnesses heard in open Court.

Upon the proof offered by the complainant and her witnesses it was found by this Honorable Court that the complainant's allegations, as contained in her original bill, were fully supported and sustained; that is, that the defendant had been guilty of abandonning the complainant and has turned her out of doors, and further he has failed and refused to provide for her support.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be dissolved and forever held for naught, and that the complainant be and she is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that as to the home of the parties, located at 3008 Post Road, Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, the defendant be divested of all right, title and interest in said home, household furnishings and other effects of the parties and that the same be vested in the complainant, Ethel Cornwell Fike, to her sole use and benefit. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the aforementioned property shall be considered complainant's alimony in solido.

The defendant shall pay the costs in this cause for which execution may issue if necessary.
