DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This cause came on to be heard on this the 2nd day of July, 1963, before the Honorable Shelton Luton, Judge, after having been referred to him for trial by the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill, answer and cross-bill, and answer to the cross-bill, and the cause was heard on the entire record and the proof of witnesses introduced on oath in open court; from all of which it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the allegations in the original bill for divorce are true and that the defendant has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment towards the complainant as renders it unsafe and improper for her to further cohabit with him and be under his dominion and control, and that the defendant has abandoned her or turned her out of doors, and refused or neglected to provide for her according to his means and that the complainant is entitled to an absolute divorce and other relief.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

The prayer of the original bill is amended on motion of the complainant to pray for an absolute divorce;

(2) The bonds of matrimony subsisting between the Complainant, Mary Estelle Chambers Turner, and the Defendant, Albert James Turner, be, and the same are hereby, forever dissolved and the Complainant is granted an absolute divorce and the Complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person;

(3) The sole and exclusive custody of the minor child of the parties, Mary Antoinette Turner, is awarded the complainant mother, Mary Estelle Chambers Turner, but the right is reserved for the defendant father, Albert James Turner, to see and visit the minor child of the parties at reasonable times and places. The right is also expressly reserved for the paternal aunt of the minor child, Miss Antoinette Turner, to see and visit the minor child at reasonable times and places. It is further expressly Ordered that the complainant mother is not to remove the minor child beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

(4) As partial alimony, the complainant, Mary Estelle Chambers Turner, is awarded all right, title and interest the defendant, Albert James Turner, has in the furniture, household goods and furnishings of the parties, and all his interests in the same are hereby divested out of him and vested in the complainant. As further alimony, the complainant, Mary Estelle Chambers Turner, is awarded all [illegible] Albert James Turner, has in the family
