VIRGINIA CHAMBERS ESCUE

-vs-

JAMES BRODIE ESCUE

IN THE 4TH CIRCUIT COURT OF DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENN.

No. 39704

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard on this 2nd day of April, 1963, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the original bill of complainant, the answer and cross-bill, the answer thereto, and the oral testimony heard by the Court.

From all of which it appears to the Court that the allegations of the original bill are supported by the proof; that is, that the defendant, James Brodie Escue, has been guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward complainant as renders further cohabitation unsafe and improper, rendering it improper for her to longer live and cohabit with him and be under his dominion and control.

It is accordingly ORDERED and DECREED by the Court that the complainant, Virginia Chambers Escue, have an absolute divorce from the defendant, James Brodie Chambers, and she is hereby restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED by the Court that the complainant be and she hereby is awarded the custody of the three minor children of the parties.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED by the Court that all right, title and interest of defendant in and to the real estate hereinafter described shall be divested out of defendant and vested in complainant, Virginia Chambers Escue, in fee simple. Said property is described as follows:

"Land in Davidson County, Tennessee, being Lot No. 4 on the Plan of Geneiva Heights of record in Book 2083, page 65, Register's Office for said County.

"Said Lot No. 4 fronts 68 feet on the southwesterly side of Geneiva Drive and runs back between parallel lines 150 feet to a dead line.

"Being the same property conveyed to James B. Escue and wife, Virginia C. Escue, by deed from Charles A. Wheeler and wife, Alice Thorne Wheeler, of record in Book 2299, page 419, Register's Office for Davidson County, Tennessee."

It is further ORDERED and DECREED by the Court that all of the household furnishings owned by the parties, together with utensils and dishes, are awarded to complainant.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that the defendant, James Brodie Escue, pay the sum of Thirty-Five ($35.00) Dollars each week to complainant as alimony and child support; and defendant will pay to James W. Rutherford, Solicitor, the sum of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars as
