This cause came on to be heard this 4th day of October, 1963, before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee, upon the complainant's petition for absolute divorce, pro confesso duly entered, upon the testimony of complainant and witnesses heard in open Court, upon statement of counsel, and upon the entire record, from all of which the Court finds that the defendant has abandoned complainant and has failed, refused and neglected to provide for her. The Court further finds that complainant is the proper person to have the care, custody and control of the parties two minor children and from the proof that she is entitled to all equity in the parties' furniture and furnishings in the home at 211 Neil Avenue and further that she is entitled to the equity in the home at 211 Neil Avenue now owned by the parties by the entireties. The Court further finds that the defendant is employed and capable of supporting the two children.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore subsisting between complainant and defendant be and the same hereby are absolutely and forever dissolved and complainant is restored to all the rights and privileges of an unmarried woman.

The complainant Florence Reynolds is awarded full care, custody and control of the two minor children of the parties Deborah Reynolds and Benjamin Taylor Reynolds but the defendant
