IN THE FOURTH CIRCUIT COURT FOR DAVIDSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, AT NASHVILLE

VIRGINIA HULME McMAHON,

VS. NO. 42786

GAYLORD VINCENT McMAHON.

FINAL DECREE

This cause came on to be heard before the Honorable Benson Trimble, Judge, on Monday, February 17, 1964, upon the testimony of witnesses in open court, deposition of witnesses duly taken, and the entire record in this cause from all of which the Court is of the opinion that Defendant Gaylord Vincent McMahon is guilty of such cruel and inhuman treatment or conduct toward the Complainant as renders cohabitation unsafe and improper and renders it unsafe and improper for her to be under his dominion and control. It further appears to the Court that the parties have entered into a property settlement agreement as follows:

That Complainant be awarded the following items of personal property which belong to the parties jointly: living room suit, dining room suit, bedroom suit from downstairs bedroom, refrigerator, cooking utensils, china, and silverware; that Complainant be divested of all her right, title and interest in certain land in Davidson County, Tennessee, as follows:

> Being Lot No. 4, Block [illegible] on the Map of Country Club Estates, as of record in Book 843, page 95.
>
> Said Lot 4 fronts 100 feet on the westerly side of McGavock Avenue and runs back between parallel lines 161 feet to a dead line.
>
> Being the same property conveyed to Gaylord V. McMahon and wife, Virginia Hulme McMahon, by deed from J. W. Cameron, et al, of record in Book 1814, page 161, Register's Office for said County.
